TILLEY QUILTS TUTUILA

Captain Ariel Sebree succeeds Tilley as Commandant.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Tutuala, Samoa, Dec. 3, via San Francisco, Dec. 16.—Captain Ariel Sebree, U. S. N., arrived here on the steamer Ventura on November 27 and immediately assumed command of the United States ship Albatross and the office of commandant of the station, coupled with the governorship of the islands. He succeeds Tilley, who sailed today for San Francisco.

The leading chiefs and officials assembled at Pago Pago to welcome Captain Sebree. Great regret was expressed by the natives and officials of Captain Tilley's departure, and Captain Sebree promised to follow as closely as possible the policy inaugurated by Captain Tilley, whereupon the natives, spoken for by their chiefs, promised to render all the support they could to the new governor.

At a general meeting of the people of Tutuala held on November 21 at Nuuli, which was presided over by Lieutenant J. L. Jayne, then commanding the station, one division strongly urged the adoption of the constitution of the United States in its entirety and at the same time asked that all other South Sea Islanders and Samoans from German Samoa be sent back to their homes. This was strenuously opposed by the stronger eastern district, whose talking men objected to the shutting out of the people of the other districts.

New York, Dec. 16.—Miss Alice Roland, of San Francisco, demands $25,000 from Edward A. Bihn, assistant treasurer of the Garden Theatre of this city, as damages for breach of promise of marriage, and a jury in the supreme court will be called upon to say whether she shall have it. She says that Bihn not only jilted her, but married another.

The matter came up before Justice O'Brien in the supreme court yesterday on application of Bihn's lawyer to require Miss Roland to put up $25,000 to cover the costs of the action. The young woman's lawyer opposed the motion, on the ground that she is about to come to New York to live, and he showed a telegram from her lawyer in San Francisco.

LIQUOR MEN UPHELD

Judge Hazen Decides That the Search and Seizure

ORDINANCE IS NO GOOD

Because Hurrel Liquor Law Is Irregular.

Topeka, Kan., Dec. 16.—District Judge Hazen today decided that the search and seizure ordinance passed under section 7 of the Hurrel liquor law is void, for the reason that that section of the Hurrel law is unconstitutional. The law provides for the suppression and regulation of the sale of liquor, and also gives cities power under section 7 to pass ordinances, and the power conferred by this section is not mentioned in the title of the law, and is therefore unconstitutional. The decision was rendered on a motion to quash the complaint in a liquor case brought by the city under the search and seizure ordinance, the judge sustaining the motion. Forty-six other cases have been brought under that ordinance and appealed to the district court. There are many more not yet appealed, among them being a number of drug store cases. If Judge Hazen's decision is affirmed by the supreme court, all the cases will be dropped.

TOO POOR TO MARRY

Fellow at Fort Scott Tries to Jew the Judge Down.

Fort Scott, Kan., Dec. 16.—It is not a common occurrence for a fellow who is desirous of having a nuptial knot tied, to allow the expenditures of a magistrate's fee to stand in the way, but one such fellow was in evidence at Justice Frankenburg's office Saturday afternoon. The fellow did not leave any name and the time spent in the justice room was so short that it is not probable that he could be recognized if seen by any of those who were present when he made his appearance.

This curious personage entered the court room and made a direct heading for the judge's seat. "Are you the judge?" he inquired, "and do you perform marriage ceremonies?"

Being informed by Justice Frankenburg in the affirmative, he wanted to know what was charged for performing such a ceremony.

He was told that $2 was the minimum, but this did not strike his fancy at all, and he frowned and replied, "Judge, is that the cheapest you can do it for? That is a whole lot of money."

"Yes, sir, that is the amount that is required by law and is the lowest I can charge," replied the judge.

The fellow made a survey of the room and then without saying anything further, turned and left the room.

ROBBED THREE STORES

Burglar is Arrested at Salina on the Charge of Stealing.

Salina, Kan., Dec. 16.—Burglars entered three stores at Salina last night and carried away different articles of merchandise. One fellow who gave his name as Emil Teichner, of Salina, was arrested here on suspicion this morning and the police believe they have the right party.

The stores robbed last night were J. S. Bellard's general merchandise, Applebaugh's drug store and Barker Bros. hardware store. The thieves entered the three stores by the same means, breaking glass out of the front doors. At Bellard's they secured $17 in money and a quantity of smoking and chewing tobacco. At Barker's hardware store seven revolvers and a number of butcher and pocket knives were stolen. Nothing is missing at the drug store. The police here were notified to be on the lookout for two men Teichner and another fellow, who were under suspicion. Teichner was located by a patrol the morning and locked up. A half pint and a pint bottle of whiskey was found on him and it was learned that he got the stuff at Salina's jail. The police called on Salina and found that he had a revolver in his possession given to him by Teichner in payment for the whiskey. The gun was a 38-caliber Iver Johnson and bore the outmark of the merchant. Mr. Barker, of Salina, was notified and he came down this morning and identified the gun as one of the missing revolvers. Teichner was put in the jail box this afternoon, but little could be gotten out of him. He played drunk all the time and played it well too. He said that he was 18 years old and had been working with the railroad gang at Salina. He will be taken back to Salina today.

AUDIENCE IS BRUTAL

Sonora Duse Resolves Hard Knock in Roman Theatre.

London, Dec. 16.—The Daily Chronicle, today under date of Rome, December 16, quotes William Archer's description of the first production in Rome of Gable's dramatic new play, "Francesca da Rimini," in which the critic says:

"At length, Sonora Duse appears, wearing auburn locks and a creamy robe of curious gauze, which is a lib or tucker covering her face right up to her lower lip. There is scarcely any perceptible applause. As the scene proceeds, it is evident that Signora Duse is hampered by her tucker and not one title of the exordium is made. Her performance is a failure. The thought of the populace was turned down with a vengeance."

"The chief victim, unhappily, was our dear and great Eleonora Duse."

"The chief cause of the misfortune was the size of the Teatro Costanzi, which is a vast opera house. There were no blades of fire arms, opium and intoxicating liquors to the natives of the islands in the Pacific ocean."

Washington, Dec. 16.—Senator Lodge today introduced a bill to prohibit the sale of fire arms, opium and intoxicating liquors to the natives of the islands in the Pacific ocean.
